PRESCHOOL HAPPENINGS

From Mrs. Westphal

God's Word

Our Bible lesson comes from Genesis 37 and the beginning verses of chapters 39 and 42. Joseph was sold as a slave to traveling Ishmaelites because of his brothers' jealousy. Joseph's brothers meant harm to Joseph, but God used all of the bad for good. Joseph worked his way up and was made 2nd in command. God used him to provide food for many people. Joseph's forgiveness is a wonderful example for us to follow. Of course, Jesus made the ultimate sacrifice to forgive us all of our sins. We waved colored strips of paper to stand for a variety of feelings in this lesson: black-anger, blue-sadness, red-love and forgiveness, etc.

Shapes

A shape poster and puzzles
Music, shapes, and movement in gym
Oreo Cookie and Crackers in Bed shape games
Shape robots during art
Pa Grape's Shapes, Stars, Ten Twinkly Stars – some fun books

3K used Do-A-Dots to trace a variety of shapes.

4K began Unit 2 in reading readiness. The story The Three Bears will be presented with a big book and small storybook. 4K is working on the concepts blue, big, medium, and little.

Enjoy the fall season!
