Divine Call Received: Dear Members of St. Peter's Lutheran Church,
I have received the call you extended to me to serve as Principal and 6th grade teacher at St. Peter's Lutheran School. I look forward to working with you as I consider the calls to serve Trinity and St. Peter's. I appreciate the communication I have already had with your leadership. Thank you for your thoughts and prayers as I consider where the Lord might best use me. In His Service, Mr. Philip Haefner & Family

Ruth - The Life of a Servant

Our Bible lesson this week was "Ruth" from the book of the Bible called "Ruth" especially chapters 1, 2, and 4. Ruth followed the true God of her mother-in-law, Naomi. After her husband died, Ruth provided for Naomi who was too old to work. Ruth worked on the farm of Boaz, who eventually became her husband. From their lineage came our Savior, Jesus. Ruth served others. The children added their "hands" to a poster containing the words "We serve the Lord with joy and thanksgiving!" They can serve others by helping friends or siblings pick up toys, being kind to others, helping mom and dad, etc.

Martin Luther

In our centers: The Drama area - a chest of drawers with chairs, wooden fruits, vegetables and bread, the Luther seal, and a Bible book
Games - a Martin Luther seal puzzle wooden beads to string tangrams - a puzzle of shapes
The Block area - Why is there no van with the toy playhouse? There are wagons instead.
Housekeeping - Why are there no telephones?
Martin Luther had no phones!
Books: A big book - Who Is Martin Luther? for the teacher to read to the students
A similar small book - Who Is Martin Luther? for the children to take home and keep
The Adventures of Martin Luther from our church library
In song: The Martin Luther Song - It reminds us that Martin Luther shared God's Word with us. It encourages the children to share God's Word with others.
In the gym or outside: Hopscotch
Rope games - "Jump the Castle Wall"
"Jump the River"
Math: Tangrams use shapes to make pictures.

“Let’s Roll” uses dice and the numbers 1-6 to trace on paper

Trick or Treat

Since trick or treating in Fond du lac was so different this year we decided to wear our costumes one day at school. We love to dress up! Each child decorated a trick or treat bag. Each family provided a prepackaged treat. Mrs. Westphal handed them out at the various centers. Izabella provided a snack for her birthday. Mrs. Westphal also provided a snack.

Reading Readiness Learning

#1 Concept Development: yellow, round, in, on, and circles

#2 La Tortuga storybook

#3 Letter Recognition: E,e,F,f

3K Learning

3K colored a birthday cake or presents for Izabella's birthday. Happy Birthday, Izabella! They also used the tangram shapes to create pictures.
