LWMS Fall Rally Babysitters Needed: We are looking for three 7th grade or older kids to help with childcare during the LWMS meeting & presentation. Help would be needed from 8:00am until Noon. The kids will be compensated for their time. We would need 2 for sure and a 3rd person as a backup in case someone can't make it. We aren't sure how many kids will need to be watched...it may just be a few, but we do not know. If your older child is interested in helping, please contact Anna or Ashley in the office for more information.

Basketball Coaches: We are looking for coaches and assistants for our C Team (3rd-4th) boys and B Team (5th-6th) boys. If interested in helping, please contact Mrs. Roecker, at athleticdirector@stpetersfdl.net. Your help is greatly appreciated!

Pastor Boehringer Update: It's been over a week since my September 13th surgery. I was discharged on Monday, September 16, and have been recovering at home since then. My incision is healing steadily. Hopefully over the next several weeks the Lord will continue to bless me with progress. That's one thing and it's welcome news.

The other thing is not so good; for the time being we are back in a period of uncertainty. Since the surgery didn't go as hoped, I still have many tumors. At this time, we don't know what treatment options are still possible. The surgeon was able to remove my appendix and some other tissue for analysis. Lord willing, this analysis will provide our oncology team with information that can more specifically direct my treatment. We meet with the surgeon at the beginning of October, and the oncology team at the end of October. The new plan will take time to put together, both because I need to heal before any treatment starts, and also because the tissue analysis can take several weeks. When we have more details, we will let you know.

For today consider Paul's words to Timothy: "Instruct those who are rich in this present age not to be arrogant or to put their hope in the uncertainty of [health], but rather in God, who richly supplies us with all things for our enjoyment. Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and willing to share. In this way they are storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life." (1 Timothy 6:17-19)

Health is never promised to us from Christ, but life now and forever is. This is what we cling to, the holy saving cross of Jesus, which makes us truly alive and eternally rich. And it also makes us generous! Thank you so very much to all of you for your generous prayers, support, and gifts during this time. In your daily devotion I ask you to ask Jesus to reveal a clear path forward from this uncertainty, but even if He doesn't, we know with steadfast clarity that whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. (Romans 14:8).
