Pastor's Update: After consultation with my doctors I have resumed chemotherapy, starting this week. With the information we have now, it appears that two different cancer processes are affecting me. One process is a high-grade aggressive cancer, which responded well to my earlier rounds of chemo. However, wide-spread low-grade cancer remains in my abdomen. So for the foreseeable future the purpose of my treatments is to maintain my health as much as possible. Even with this prognosis I am feeling good, so I will be resuming my pastoral ministry. You'll be seeing me around at school and church. Please contact me or Pastor Lindemann for spiritual care—we love to bring you Jesus and that's why we are both here.

On behalf of myself and my family I continue to be overwhelmed by your generosity as a congregation and as Christian individuals and families. All your prayers, gifts, and support keep pointing my heart to our dear Lord Jesus. He is good. He is kind and so are His people. We live together under His cross. Let us confess and sing our joy in Him at home, in church, and in our classrooms!

Valley Classic Basketball Tournament for our A Boys (8) & A Girls is December 7-8. Saturday's games will be at St. Peter, Appleton (N2740 French Rd, Appleton) or Mount Olive, Appleton (930 E Florida Ave, Appleton) and Sunday's games will be at St. Peter, Appleton again. Home teams will need someone to run the clock & away teams will need someone to do the scorebook.
